INLAWS & OUTLAWS* RETURNS TO CENTRAL CINEMA FOR PRIDE Also: Warren Etheridge Hosts Screening & Discussion

(SEATTLE) From June 16th – 18th, hit documentary Inlaws & Outlaws returns to Central Cinema for an exclusive engagement just in time for Seattle Gay Pride season. Filmmaker, Drew Emery will be on hand for Q&A's following each show.

Plus, at the Tuesday, June 16th 7 pm show, Seattle's biggest movie fan, Warren Etheridge of The Warren Report, will be on hand to host the film and a discussion with the filmmaker.

Made in Seattle, Inlaws & Outlaws has delighted audiences and critics alike with its playful and heart-warming take on matters of love. While the ongoing debate about gay marriage makes it timely and topical, the film wisely dispenses with the politics that often divide us into gay and straight camps and focuses, instead, on everyday storytellers we can all relate to.

At the top of the film, we don't know who's gay or straight or who's with whom. As their stories unfold and stereotypes fall by the wayside, love conquers all — and we find ourselves rooting for everyone. With remarkable honesty, good humor, great music and real heart, Inlaws & Outlaws is a definite must see.

For cinema buffs, Central Cinema is a local treasure. Movies are just $6 and it's the only place in Seattle where you can enjoy beer, wine, and pizza comfortably at your table.
